

If you are involved in an accident

In the event you are involved in a road traffic accident or collision your first obligation is to the safety & wellbeing of yourself and those around you. If you feel it is necessary or you feel any person or persons is injured, in danger or there is a possibility of injury you must call 999 immediately and request the assistance of the relevant emergency services.

Once you have established that no parties are injured and that there is no further risk of injury or danger you must do the following:

REFER TO YOUR ACCIDENT & EMERGENCY RESPONSE BOOKLET

This booklet should have been provided to you when you started.

Full details of the accident along with the information recorded relating to the accident or incident should be submitted via the DYY app.
